I'm 'mad' because you sexually abused a man significantly younger than you and then accused him of rape then isolated from all of his friends and kept talking to him for two years, and telling him you would protect him from anyone finding out scamming multiple men simultaneously and ruining their lives for fun is gross but not a crime, not in the United States anyway but sexual and emotional abuse is illegal everywhere, Madeline Sally Lee first of all, I thought you were 30 not 35

it's utterly ridiculous for you to engage in this type of behavior at your age. being divorced, losing custody of your kid, having to live with your parents and hold down a shitty part time job, can't find anyone that will actually go through with marriage. I get it, it's a lot at your age.

but why drag everyone else down with you? your ex, your parents, your kid, your coworkers, your friends. why pull them all underwater with you while you're drowning? don't they deserve better than this? better than what you are capable of giving right now?

your mental health is in a precarious place and I can't even begin to guess what is driving you to behave in such a bizarre and dangerous manner.

I only hope that you come to...

how many discussions about age gap and grooming do we have to have before we decide that a 35 year old having sexual contact with a 23 year old is not in any way appropriate?

it's disturbing that a significant portion of the men you've had sexual contact with are extremely young, 17 18 19 years old it's alarming that you see nothing wrong with this behavior and that you in fact have spent the last month bragging about it
